

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank you the Info Challenge 2022 organizers for making it possible for us to participate in servicing our greater Maryland community by using our data science model findings to recommend policy changes to better our communities.